Lisa, Markus, and their host mother, Diane Forrester.

Hello,
My name is Markus Fockenberg and I am one of the three exchange students in Freeland High School 2000/2001.

I was born near Cologne, Germany; September 4, 1983. One thing that you will remember when you think of me is that I'm 2.04 M (6'8") tall and that I'm the The Freeland High School award winner for the vertically gifted. Too bad that I'm not sporty and I do not like to play basketball. The time in Freeland was very nice. I really enjoyed being in a smaller town and school with a family feeling. Since I have been here I have seen a lot of the United States. I was lucky that my hostmother, Diane Forrester, likes to travel and she took me to really nice places. Diane is a very nice lady and I enjoyed staying with her. The time in her house without siblings and nobody else around was sometimes lonely, but I had luck again when Lisa, the other German exchange student moved in with us in the second semester. She brought a little bit more life to the house.

I'm sure I will miss Freeland and Freeland High. I met many nice people and learned a lot. Thanks for a great year!

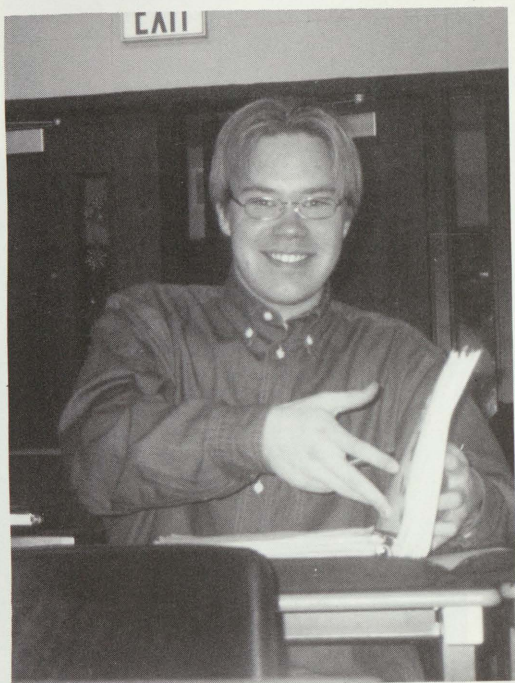

Yours Truly,
Markus

About your local community college

Myth No. 1

The Name Game: You can call us Tri-High . . .

Or you can call us MSU (Mackinaw Street University – coined by local sportscaster Art Neil) – or you can call us the college in the cornfield. We don't care. Cuz as the old saying goes: "names will never hurt us". You see, we would rather put our reputation on the line than get into a discussion of what you call us.

Delta College is rated as one of best community colleges in the nation. We are a member of the prestigious League of Innovation in the Community College – that's a real cool by-invitation-only organization. Ask any of our 30,000 graduates – go ahead, call them – how they feel about their Delta experience. They will tell you the plain truth . . . the college in the cornfield gave them the best possible education

Call us:

(Midland)

Experience the Delta Difference

It is the policy of Delta College not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin or handicap in its educational programs, activities or employment.
